NEW YORK, April 14—New York reversed Thursday's score, defeating Brooklyn 4 to 3. Douglas kept the Brooklyn hits well scattered.

The Giants won the game in the second inning, largely on Vance's wildness. Muesel hit his second home run of the season in this inning. No one was on base. He also hit two singles.

The score: R. H. E.
Brooklyn 3 1 1
Giants 4 3 1
Batteries—Vance and DeBerry; Douglas and Smith.

ST. LOUIS, April 14—St. Louis hit glaser and Morrison for twelve safeties Thursday, including three doubles and homers by Smith and Ainsmith, and defeated Pittsburgh 8 to 4.

Smith's circuit rap came with two men on base in the second inning.

The score: R. H. E.
St. Louis 8 12 6
Pittsburgh 4 3 2
Batteries—Glaser, Morrison and Gooch; Boak, Bailey, Barto and Ainsmith.

CINCINNATI, April 14—Luque was hit hard and Chicago had little difficulty in defeating Cincinnati Thursday 5 to 1. Hollister's fielding was again a feature.

In the first inning fourteen of Chicago's reserve players were ordered from the bench for protesting a decision by Umpire Klen and Santelle. This left the visitors with but eleven men on the field.

The score: R. H. E.
Chicago 5 14 2
Cincinnati 1 6 2
Batteries—Aldridge and Hartnett; Luque, Markle and Wingo.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14—Parkinson's triple in the eighth inning enabled Philadelphia Thursday to take its second victory from Boston 4 to 2.

After the first inning, when the Braves got two hits, mixed with a pass and Fletcher's error, for their two runs, King held the visitors.

The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia 4 8 1
Boston 2 7 5
Batteries—McQuinn, Fillingham and Gowdy; Ring and Henline.

FELLOWSHIPS FOR MINING STUDENTS

SALT LAKE, April 14—The department of mining and metallurgical research at the University of Utah is seeking applications of qualified men, college graduates with good training in chemistry and metallurgy, for fellowships in the department during the year 1922-23.

These fellowships not only entitle the recipient to a $250 fee for living expenses, but afford an excellent opportunity for training under the supervision of highly expert engineers.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

NORTHERN LOOP READY TO PLAY

Schedule for 1922 Season Adopted; Jensen Is the New Secretary

The schedule for the 1922 baseball campaign of the Northern Loop league was adopted at a meeting of the league representatives held at Brigham Thursday, the schedule calling for 20 games with a split season.

President Angus Kennedy presided at the conference.

Joe Jensen, recently named as secretary of the league to succeed Ray Olson, was present and took over his new duties.

The constitution and bylaws were accepted and will become effective immediately.

Salaries for umpires were raised. The season will open May 17 with Smithfield meeting Ogden on the local and Brigham and Logan playing at Logan.

Managers of the teams entered in the league were in attendance at the meeting and announced that they are busy lining up players for the new season. From every indication the class of ball will be just as good if not better than last year.

The next meeting has been left to the call of the president.

CADDOCK BEATEN BY HEADLOCKS OF LEWIS

WICHITA, Kan., April 14—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, world's champion wrestler, successfully defended his title here by throwing Earl Caddock of Iowa two falls out of three. Caddock took the first fall in 16 minutes with a headlock. Lewis took the second with a series of headlocks in 35 minutes and the third in eight minutes with a headlock.

Caddock electrified the large crowd of fans present by taking the first fall in sudden and dramatic fashion. After 15 minutes of wrestling, Lewis clamped on a headlock and started to apply the pressure. The speedy Iowa, however, slipped from the hold and before the crowd knew what was coming, had applied a headlock on Lewis, which won him the first fall.

The champion then watched his opportunity and when the time came put on the inevitable headlock with which he had defeated every great wrestler in the game. The second fall came in 43 minutes with the headlock and the third in eight minutes with the same hold.

PRESTON NIELSON WINS CASTO METAL

LOGAN, April 14—Preston Nielson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Nielson of Logan, has been announced the winner of the Casto oratorical contest and the medal given by George D. Casto. Four contestants gave extemporaneous talks at the student body meeting yesterday, Nielson being the winner.

Other contestants in the finals were W. E. Atwood, who received the vote of one judge, Nielson, the winner, received two votes. Nielson's subject was "Love and the Reward for Unselfishness." The judges were the Rev. Harris Pillsbury, Leon Fomesbeck and Orson Ryan.

ROPER DARES LEWIS FOR MIXED BATTLE

WICHITA, Kan., April 14—Captain Bob Roper, heavyweight boxer, here for the wrestling match Thursday night between Ed "Strangler" Lewis, champion, and Earl Caddock of Iowa, challenged Lewis to a mixed wrestling and boxing bout. Lewis won the last two of three falls Thursday night.

In issuing the challenge Roper said: "I am willing and very anxious to meet Lewis in such a bout. Before taking on Dempsey, Lewis can try out his stuff on some one not so good. I am willing to meet Lewis in a mixed bout and will post a side bet of $10,000 that I can beat him. If he wants to make his Dempsey offer good he should meet me first."

Sacramento Team to Grow Whiskers Like Forty-Miners

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 14—In keeping with the spirit of '49 all members of the Sacramento baseball team, from Manager Pick to the utility brigade, today agreed to grow whiskers, provided William H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast league, will permit it.

The movement started with Oscar Stancare, who argued that in view of the Days of '49 celebration to be held in Sacramento next May it would be proper for the Sacramento team to grow whiskers and look like "forty-miners." The Days of '49 committee, hearing of the plan, has decided to make a contest of the whisker-growing has offered a list of prizes for players growing the best set of facial foliage.

A telegram has been sent to President McCarthy in San Francisco, asking for a whisker ruling. Pending the ruling Sacramento players will boycott the barbers.

WEDDING AT PLATE OPENS BALL SEASON

ATLANTA, Ga., April 14—A wedding at the home plate opened the baseball season today in Atlanta.

Gordon Flowers, claiming the local club manager's offer of $50 and two season tickets for any couple who would have the knot tied at home plate, led Mrs. Cora Cooper to the improvised altar just before Atlanta and Chattanooga took the field for their opening Southern association game. The fans gave them a demonstration fit for a home-run king.

KERR LEAVES FOR SEMI-PRO OUTFIT

PARIS, Tex., April 14—Dick Kerr, star southpaw of the White Sox, who has declined to sign a contract this year owing to disagreement over salary terms, has left here for Chicago to join the City Hall semi-pro organization. Kerr said he would be glad to get back into the White Sox line-up when his salary expectations are met.
